

BRIEF OUTLINE FOR THE VETERINARY ACUPUNCTURE CERTIFICATE

Some of the topics to be covered during each individual section include, but are not limited to:

BRIEF OUTLINE OF THE PROGRAM

Section ONE – Online LIVE

- ✓ Introduction to Foundations of Chinese Medicine
- ✓ Types of Qi
- ✓ Qi/Blood/Shen.
- ✓ Qi formation.
- ✓ Blood formation.
- ✓ Five Element correspondences.
- ✓ Sheng cycle.
- ✓ K'o cycle.
- ✓ Introductory ideas of channels, points, point functions, and history.
- ✓ Introduction to formulas for Qi, Blood and Shen.

Section TWO: Face-to-face

- ✓ Emphasis on clinical hands-on practicums utilizing models, specimens, and canine and equine patients.
- ✓ Review of relevant anatomy.
- ✓ Presentation of channels and points on both canine and equine patients.
- ✓ Pulse diagnosis.
- ✓ Tongue diagnosis.
- ✓ Needling technique.
- ✓ Improvement of palpation skills.

Section THREE and FOUR: Online LIVE

- ✓ These Sections will form the basis of understanding diagnosis, pathology, and treatment strategies from a Chinese Medicine point of view.
- ✓ Expansion on point functions and its categories.
- ✓ Causes of disease.
- ✓ 8 principles
- ✓ 4 inspections.
- ✓ Patterns.
- ✓ Five Element clearings, and treatments.
- ✓ Pain.
- ✓ Channel theory.
- ✓ Treatment planning.

Section FIVE: Face-to-face

- ✓ Initial evaluation of students' skills on Wednesday.
- ✓ Thursday and Friday will emphasize hands-on activities and instruction to

- address students' strengths and weaknesses.
- ✓ Final, practical evaluations on Saturday.
- ✓ Additional topics include Guasha, E-Stim, B-12 injection of points, scanning the horse, and moxa.

